Due to staffing shortages and to enhance safety with the resulting shortages, in June of 2018, State prison facilities began backlogging offenders sentenced to serve terms of incarceration in the state prison system in county jails as a means of population control.

For the 2nd quarter of 2023, the Department incurred jail backlog cost of $2,560, as detailed in the table below. This is a significant decrease from the previous quarter which had jail backlog cost of $23,720.
